Library Board Would Give Ransom Demanded for Rethe City Another Park.

EXPOSITION BOARD EXPECTED POLICE OF THREE STATES LOOK-TO ACCEPT TERMS.

Librarian Crunden Says That Under Kidnapers Threaten to Torture Their Most Favorable Conditions the New Library Cannot Be Completed Within Two Years.

board as the site for our new central itbrary building.

"If the Exposition management does so, it will give St. Louis another park right in the heart of the city.

"It is our intention if we secure the site to reconvert it into a park, as it once was, and place the library building in its center. It would not detract from the appearance of the park. In fact, it would beautify it, as it would occupy only about one-fifth of the available space.

"Now that the library amendments have carried the securing of an appropriate site is all that remains to be done to secure Mr. Carnegie's bequest. The site we want is the Exposition ground. Our property at Elighteenth and Olive is not so large or so conveniently located. A year ago the old Exposition management was about ready to give us the site. Whether the present board will do so I cannot say, but I have strong hopes that it will. It is not a money-maker in its present state. "Physicians told me I had acute kidney and bladder trouble. I was nervous almost to the verge of hysteria, and my memory failed me. I had grown so thin I was little more than a shadow, and people were continually asking me how much younger my husband was than myseli. (So comforting to a woman, you know). In truth he is five years my senior.

"Well, as a forlorn hope I left off coffee and took up Postum Food Coffee about a year ago. I soon became so sleepy that I could scarcely stay awake long enough to take care of my baby. I did not realize that I was sleeping naturally and making up for lost time. Finally I got pretty well 'slept up,' the drowsiness disappeared and I felt a decided improvement in health. In three or four weeks I was quite well and only needed to regain my flesh and complexion. I waited very patiently for an improvement in these conditions, but it was about 5 months before I was rewarded, then an almost instantaneous change took place, and my stantaneous change took place and the stantaneous change to stantaneou fore I was rewarded, then an almost in-stantaneous change took place, and my complexion became clear and rosy. Welssenburg carried a roll of manuscript in his haad, and said, in reply to an inquiry of the court, he was a German author. He offered to allow the court to peruse a bulky essay on "Nayal Expansion of the Powers, but Judge Sidener told the baron that he was more intelested in knowing of occurrences which took place while he was a boarder at the Demmler home.

The witness declared that he had protected Mrs. Demmler from injury at her husband's hands. Since this occurrence, he said, he had ceased to beard at the Demmler home, but had occasionally met Mrs. Demmler at different places in the neighborhood, as he felt that she needed his advice.

Mrs. Demmler's testimony was given in German. She said that her husband struck Attorneys Morton Jourdan and Isaac H. Lionberger represented Mr. McMillin, who did not appear in court. Lee Meriwether, representing property owners in the vi-cinity, appeared as special counsel for the city.

The list of catarrh cures is as long as the moral law and the forms in which they are administered, numerous and confusing, from sprays, inhalers, washes, oint ments and salves to powders, liquids and tablets.

The tablet form is undoubtedly the most convenient and most effective, but with nearly all advertised catarrh remedies it is almost entirely a matter of guess.

Early today two men were arrested at Willoughby upon the charge of being members of the gang which robbed the bank. The robbers only succeeded in galning entrance to one compartment of the big safe. In another part, which was not reached, I is said, nearly $50,000 was stored. Pomeroy, the night watchman, is badly hurt. After he shot one of the burglars he was clubbed over the head. After being bound and gagged the watchman was dragged into the bank. He lay there a witness to all the operations.

At each explosion the robbers retired to places of safety. Pomeroy lay in an exposed place and no attention was paid to him except that one of the robbers whose arm had evidently been broken by the shot from the watchman's revolver, occasionally gave him a kick as he passed. The robbers were a long time getting into the vault. They gathered up the loose coins lying about and then went at the strongbox. They exploded several charges, but could not force it. the convention will announce its acceptance.

It is possible the Cubans will find a short way out of their dilemma through the appointment of a visiting commission to consult with the administration at Washington and have the Platt amendment explained. It is Mr. Dalzell's view that the acceptance of the Platt amendment will not be announced until next fal.

A remarkabe feature of the Cuban conditions is the fact that out of a population of 1,500,000, more than a third are of school age, from 5 to 17 years. This large number of children and youths is being educated under the direction of Americans, and the effect will be to bring about an undestanding of American language and history and of American ways.

The proposals for the civil list show a net increase of £67,000.

Mr. Labouchere, the sole signatory of the minority report, thinks that no increase is necessary. In a piquant paragraph he says:

"The committee did not deem it within the scope of their inquiry to consider whether a continuance of the pomp of pride and ceremony of the court is desirable. Suggestions have been rife that the cost of living has gone up among the wealthier classes since her late majesty ascended the throne. This idea seems to be done to present ostentatious expenditure of some of those who have suddenly acquired large fortunes.

"But your committee does not believe the sovereign would desire to enter into monetary competition with such persons, or encourage by his example such vainglorious prodigality on the part of his subjects."

Warner's Safe Cure Cc., Rochester, N. Y.

Dear Sirs:-Before either of my daughters was born I was dying with kidney disease. I am now a grandmother. There are no words to tell what I suffered. When I lay down at night I would pray if there was no relief for me that I would never see another morning. Anyone could see I could not in this condition live long. My husband tried doctor after doctor, but I got no better, and oh! the nasty stuff I swallowed. Some way, I don't remember now how, one of your pamphlets fell into my hands. I saw cures just like mine described, so I thought maybe your remedy might help me. I asked my husband to get it, but he had no faith in patent medicines, 30 he went to another doctor. Still I grew worse. People who lived some distance from me told me afterward that they would ask when they saw any of my near neighbors if I was still alive. One day I saw a friend going to town, and I told him to bring me a bottle of Warner's Safe Cure. I had not taken it three days before I began to feel better. When that bottle was gone I had no trouble getting my husband to get me another. I also sent for the pills. I took in all about ten bottles of Warner's Safe Cure and five of the Safe Pills. I do all my own work; have very little need of medicine. I have often thought I would tell you what your remedy did for me, but put it off from time to

TO RAISE INSURANCE RATES.

After April 6 Eleven Per Cent Will Be Added to the Tariff.

James A. Waterworth, former president of the local Board of Underwriters, has issued a circular to fire insurance agents, notifying them of a 11 per cent increase in rates, to become effective in St. Louis April 6.

The practice of deducting 10 per cent from schedule rates will be discontinued, and until a new rate book is issued agents will compute the new rate by adding 11 per cent to the old one. The rates on many specific stocks and occupancies, it is stated in the circular, will also be revised. There are no emergency rates in St. Louis, the same having been abolished by the Board of Underwriters before its adjournment, two years ago.

Failure to obtain desired legislation at Jefferson City is one of the reasons assigned for the advance in rates.

MIDWEEK NEWS AND COMMENT CONCERNING THINGS THEATRICAL

E. S. Willard presented "The Middleman" at the Olympic last night, the one play which requires the full strength of the company. The same care in the production was noticed as on previous occasions, and again Mr. Willard demonstrated his versatility. The play is not one that appeals to an audience as does any of Mr. Williard so other plays, as there is a disagreeable strain running in through it which makes it too somber. We have enough disagreeable things off the stage. Miss Hoffman did not appear to so good advantage, as the part is not adapted to her.

Tonight Mr. Williard will appear as Tom Pinch, the man who might be any age from 16 to 69. Friday evening and Saturday matinee he will again present David Garrick and on Saturday evening he will close with "The Middleman."

Winner and Proctor and Hamilton.

"Aida," the great scenic and spectacular opera, great as well on its musical side, is being grandly performed by the Castle Square Opera. Co. at Music Hall this week. It is deservedly renorted to be the best endeavor in an artistic sense that the big tuneful organization has to offer.

Klaw & Erlinger will present their special revival of "The Merchant of Vence," in which Mr. N. C. Goodwin and Miss Maxime Elliott will appear as Shylock and Portia, at the Olympic Theater, Monday night, May 12. Mr. Goodwin and Miss Elliott will play but twenty cities in this production, presenting only twenty-eight performances. They will appear here but one night.

"Lady Huntworth's Experiment," is the new play in which Daniel Frohman's company will appear at the Olympic Monday night for a week's engagement. Miss Hilda Spong will be the bright particular star.

Gotham Never Hears About. NEW YORK, April 4.—John W. Alexan-der, the artist, in a lecture before the Art formerly consul-general and acting minis-

Students' League last hight, criticised New York for falling behind the times in art matters. He said:

"There is a school of young artists rapidly coming to the front in France, whose work is unknown to New York. Philadelphia, Pittsburg, St. Louis know them. These cities see work that never comes to New York because their local art societies maintain in Europe agents who, as soon as any picture or statue attracts attention, make every effort to secure it for one of their exhibitions. Such works of art pass through New York under bond on their way to other cities, and return through New York, but the metropolis never sees them."

OFFERED DR. J. M. SPENCER.

Miss Mabel Taylor King, cousin of John
D. Rockefeller, who will accompany Edna
May to England at the close of the season, is said to be the highest priced chorus girl in New York. Her salary is $40 per week, nearly three times the ordinary salary.
The phenomenal salary is due to Miss
King's phenomenal voice.

Miss King's voice is a deep rich contralto.
It has often been called a baritone.
And it is all the more remarkable when one realizes that its possessor is a little girl of 18, not much above five feet in height and weighing very little over 100 pounds.
She was asked:
"O, gracious! He would faint dead away at the word 'stage.' Besides I don't care to ask favors. But I sometimes think it is hard lines than I cannot stop long enough to study as I ought. I have to use my voice too much, but the pot must be kept boiling, you know. My sister, Frances, and I have to support ourselves and mother. We can't be idle a moment."

Mabel Taylor King happens to be one of the chorus girls who live on their own earnings.

Harry Lacy, in "The Still Alarm," is doing a fair business at the Century this week, the upper part of the house being filled each night. Saturday night Dick Lightner, advertising agent, and R. N.
Woods, doorkeeper, will be tendered a benefit. There will be a crowded house.

Virginia creepers grow along their sides from bottom to top. It stands outlined against the night like the deserted ruins of a castle. Owls, bats and pigeons make their borm in the old place, and as they fly round and round the somber structure they look like so many rooks circling a haunted tower.

CUBAN CLAIMS OF $30,000,000

Damages on Account of the Spanish-American War.

FILE AT WASHINGTON

A COMMISSION WILL SOON BEGIN THEIR CONSIDERATION.

Many of These Claims, It Is Believed, Have Little Basis and Are Pressed by Lawyers for the Collection Fee.

WASHINGTON, April 4.- The organization of the Spanish war claims commission, which will be effected next week, with ex-Senator Chandler as president, is drawing fresh attention to the Cuban claims. The total amount of damages asked now foots up $30,000,000, and, though six months is allowed for filing claims after the commisslon organizes, it is not probable that the list will be greatly extended. Nearly all the pending claims have been taken up by lawyers as contingent ones, the usual fee stipulated being 331-3 per cent of the amount allowed. One firm which has a large international business has filed claims for various clients to the aggregate amount large international business has filed claims for various clients to the aggregate amount of $3,000,000. A Washington lawyer, who was attached to the military government for a brief period, represents claims amounting to $300,000.

There are a number of claims of Cuban-Americans, which were taken up by the state department and pressed on the Spanish government for reparation for injuries inflicted, or for imprisonment. In two or three cases of this kind the Spanish authorities had agreed to make compensation for the injuries. Among these is that of Mrs. Rulz, the widow of Dr. Ricardo Rulz, who, it was charged, was killed in jail, near Havana, in the last days of President Cleveland's administration. Mrs. Rulz filed a claim for $75,000 damages, and since the death of her husband has been living in Washington in poverty. It is part of the unwritten history of the Spanish-American war that the Spanish government had agreed to pay this claim, when the explosion of the Maine ended all possibility of a peaceful setlement of the Cuban question.

Among the claimants for property losses there are a few Spanlards who may get some compensation because they managed to have their plantations placed in American hands or had formed American partnerships. There are also a few Cuban planters whose estates were so heavily mortgaged that they were glad to let them pass into American ownership. Some subjects of European powers also managed to acquire American outzership, just as a good many Cubans acquired it. One of this class of naturalized Europeans has a claim for nearly $1,000,000 for damages to his plantation.

A glance at the list of claimants shows that about three-fourths of them are Cu-class of naturalized Europeans has a claim for nearly $1,000,000 for damages to his plantation.

A glance at the list of claimants shows that about three-fourths of them are Cuban or Spanish names. One heavy claim is made by a Cuban planter, who was a leading spirit in the insurrection and whose plantation was for a time the head-quarters of Maceo. He was in Havana all through the insurrection and while the Spanish authorities suspected him of complicity in it, they never were able to catch him, and his American citizenship protected him from arrest on mere suspicion. Another claimant is an American citizen who represented a number of manufacturing concerns in the United States and who had lived in Cuba for 30 or 40 years. He asks about $300,000 for damages suffered through the interruption of his business. Several of the bona fide American claimants may be embarrassed by their action in the insurrection. As a rule the genuine American citizens who had property interests in Cuba, though they despised the Spanish government, had no sympathy with the insurgents. Dupuy de Lome, when he was the Spanish minister, enlisted this class to show that there was no real insurrection and that the island was pacified. They wrote letters, declaring that everything was moving smoothly and that there was no interruption of work on the plantations. One of the most prominent of this class made frequent visits to Washington for personal conferences with congressmen and officials. He would cite his own plantation as evidence of the perfect protection which was afforded by the Spanish authorities and in contravention of the stories of the damages which the insurgents were able to inflict. Notwithstanding these assurances, this American planter has put in a heavy bill for losses to his property in the insurrection.

ARRESTED THE BRIDEGROOM. His New Mother-in-Law Declares That

He Took a False Oath. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 4.—The mother of his bride has sworn out a warrant for perjury against Robert Foster, who appeared at the office of the county clerk and secured a license to marry Miss Halile Dell Holloway Monday. He gave his age at 21 and made affidavit that his intended bride was 18. The girl's mother declares that her daughter was only 16 years of age, and that the marriage was without her consent. Mrs. Foster is a very pretty girl, who does not look to be over it years old. Foster is a mechanic, and recently came from Water Valley, Miss. Foster has not yet given bond and will probably remain in custody until his examination, which is set for 10 a. m. Friday.

The girl-wife has gone back to her mother's home. When asked if she would like to see her husband in jail, she replied lightly that she did not. She said that she had told him that he had better see her mother first, but he would not listen to her. who appeared at the office of the county

FRENCH AFFRONT THE BRITONS

The King's Messenger to Portugal Openly Insulted as He Passed Through. LONDON, April 4.-Dispatches received here from Paris reiterate the stories of af-fronts to Lord Carrington and his suite while returning from Lisbon after formally while returning from Lisbon after formally announcing King Edward's accession to King Charles of Portugal.

It seems that the train on which the mission traveled, conveyed a number of nurses returning from the Boer army. The result, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co., from Paris, was that at every station there were violent anti-British scenes, Lord Carrington and his suite were openly insulted, while the nurses were greeted with loud cheers. The situation became so intolerable that the British mission finally changed trains.

NO POLITICS IN THE SCHOOL BOARD.

The election of two Republicans and two Democrats to the School Board should fix the policy with reference to this office for all future time. The School Board should be kept to look after the educational interests of the people and not be made a part of the machinery of partisan politics.

The Democratic precedent of Tuesday is a good one to fol-low. Each party can nominate men of opposite political faith along with their own. Or, as in this election, the two nominating bodies may unite upon candidates. This is the better way, perhaps. However it is done politics must never be allowed to re-enter the School Board.

The House of Delegates seems hopeless. There is no reason to expect anything better from the members elected than St. Louis has been accustomed to get from former delegates.

VACATION PLAYGROUNDS.

Last year hundreds of children in the downtown district were benefited by the vacation playground and summer school American cities? vement. This year two playgrounds instead of one have been allotted for the experiment, and it is graifying to know that those citizens who have already done so much to make this good work successful are again active in its behalf.

report of the Vacation Playground Committee for 1900 shows that the playground and its attractions were highly in the "also rans." appreciated by the children, many of whom came as early as 6 o'clock in the morning, so eager were they to take advantage this opportunity to share in the good things thrown open

There were games, such as basket bail and football: there were swinging bars, books, marbles, dolls—something to please boys and girls. There were shower baths, and there were careful and reponsible persons on duty to show the children how to make the most of their surroundings.

Of course this work cannot be conducted without money. The disbursements last year were $362.62. It is to be hoped that the two playgrounds offered for the coming season will be successful. To make sure of this the funds should be forthcoming: It is doubtful if any better way could be found of giving pleasure for such a trifling expenditure.

As a third term Mayor of Chicago, Carter Harrison may consider himself mentionable as a one-term candidate for President.

The Post-Dispatch thought for Tuesday was this "Have something to do, something to love, and something to hope for," by Dr. Chalmers. This is one of the simplest rules of life. It does not require Howard told the Post-Dispatch that Miss Crane, who is an orphan, made her home for six years with his parents, but that for the last few years she had been staying with her grandmother. Mrs. Scear, at Augusta. Kan.

"She left her grandmother's home on March 15, so I am informed "said Howard. "Just before she started she said sha was going to visit relatives in Illinois. She did visit the family of Samuel Jack at Beancoup, Washington County. But she left there, so the letter from my parents states, and came to St. Louis. I know she has been in poor health for a year and I think she is probably in a hospital here."

Miss Crane is described as 18 years old, rather pretty, with dark hair, blue or gray eves, fair complexion and siightly frecaled. She is 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighs 125 pounds.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, April 4.-Lord Paunceforte, the British ambassador, asked the police to WASHINGTON, April 4.—A recent report at the state department tells a dreadful story of wholesale suicide of women in China. When a Chinese matron is abused by a white man she notifies her own family and that of her husband and announces that on a certain date she will depart this life. No remonstrance is made, and invariably the woman carries out her plan. If she did nor commit suicide would be ostracized by her people and compelled to change her mode of life entirely.

by her people and compelled to change her mode of life entirely.

The fate of the unmarried women who are mistreated by the soldiers is only a little different. In some cases they are killed by their relatives instead of committing suicide, but this is only a form of self-destruction, as they are entirely passive in the hands of their friends. So extensive have been the crimes of the white soldiers that in many villages and small towns women have practically disappeared.

It is reported in this state department report that in many villages it is difficult to find a female person over the age of 10 years and under the age of 50. When the matrons do not announce that they will "depart this life" the suggestion to do so comes from the husband and is said to be rarely evaded. Nothing is left undone, that will add to the outrages and indignities suffered by the Chinese.

The report makes the point clearly that no complaint of the above character was made against a soldier of this country.

We can live in hope, however, that some day Rublin and Jeffries may meet. Hoping costs nothing and keeps one in a pleasant frame of mind.

Furniture, slightly damaged, to furnish two YOUNG BRITISHERS' EXODUS TO CITIES INCREASES.

QUESTION A PRESSING ONE

Industry of the Nation Is Threatened by the Movement. LONDON, April A-How to check the present exodus from the farms to the cities is now demanding the serious attention of the British agriculturists. Between the many attractions of metropolitan life, which dazzle and allure the young people of rural England, and the fine clothes and excitement offered to those who enlist in the army and navy, the farms are becoming depopulated throughout the Island, according to the plaint now raised in the ranks of the landholders. The Scottish farms are suffering quite as much if not more than those of the sister kingdom. The departure of young men from the farming communi dustry of the British nation.

Identifying Uncle James.

From the Washington Post.

Uncle James, from away out West, came to town one day recently to visit his kinsfolk, who live in Thirteenth street, just above Iowa circle. It so happened that nobody in the family except the second daughter, Nancy, had seen Uncle James in years and years, and, as she was unable to leave her room, Johnnie, who is 12 years old and as ingenious as them make them, it was told to go to the station and meet the gentleman. Uncle James alighted from the train and walked slowly toward the station entrance looking this way and that for somebody to welcome him. He had passed through the gate and was entering it the waiting room, when Johnny ran up behind him and touched him on the arm.

"Lemme carry your traveling bag, Uncle James was delighted.

"Why, how in the world did you know me, my boy?" he asked.

"I wasn't sure until I saw your back."

"I wasn't sure until I saw your back."

"I wasn't sure until I saw your back."

Johnny made answer. "Nancy told me how you looked, and as soon as I got behind you was a watermelon-shaped man with a double chin on the back of your neck."
